Product designer with over 12 years' experience in Italy and the UK, across agencies, startups and large organisations. I specialise in turning complex data and engineering constraints into clear interfaces, from mission-critical operator tools to marketplaces and consumer apps.

Work Experience

Lead Designer
Movyon - Florence - Hybrid
Oct 2021 - Jul 2026

- Owned design for IoT, GIS and mission-critical platforms used by motorway traffic operators.
- Cut control room operators' time to action by 80% by turning dense sensor and geospatial data into visualisations they could read and act on instantly.
- Bridged engineering and operations, translating complex requirements into interfaces experts used under pressure, with no training.

Lead Designer
Italiaonline - Milan - Remote
Oct 2020 - Oct 2021

- Led end-to-end design of a two-sided marketplace for Italy's largest internet group, from consumer search to merchant back office.
- Brought small, family-run businesses online with a dashboard to track and convert paid leads.
- Balanced consumer experience and revenue goals while launching subscription and pay-per-lead models.

Lead Designer
Comqura - Italy - Remote
Sep 2019 - Sep 2020

- Led product design for an online pharmacy e-commerce, owning the full product phase end to end.
- Drove the redesign and rebrand from Pharmatruck to Comqura, defining the new product experience and visual language.
- Designed a clear, trustworthy shopping journey for health products, from discovery to checkout.

Senior Product Designer - Contract
London
May 2018 - Aug 2019

Yumpingo · On-site

- Designed Yumpingo Pay, the company's pay-at-table product.
- Designed the split-the-bill feature, removing the social awkwardness of dividing the bill; it became a heavily used part of the product.
- Crafted intuitive tools for busy restaurant operators.

nkoda · On-site

- Increased engagement by 60% by redesigning onboarding for nkoda's sheet music library.
- Rebuilt search across 110,000+ scores so musicians could find specific editions, arrangements and instrumentation.
- Tested designs with professional musicians and turned the insights into shipped product changes.

ClearScore · Hybrid

- Designed features for one of the UK's leading consumer fintech apps, used by millions.
- Partnered with R&D to turn complex credit analytics into insights anyone could understand.

UX/UI Designer

Paradigma - Catania - On-site
Feb 2013 - Feb 2018

- Delivered e-commerce and brand websites from concept to launch for clients such as Telecom Italia.
- Led art direction, defining visual language and user flows alongside UX/UI teams.
- Ramped up fast in new industries, shipping on tight agency deadlines.
